Next Sunday's Service will be Communion led by Rev Dr Michael Moon.

The offering last Sunday for the work of God in this church and circuit was £234.19

- Those in our community who are frail, lonely or unwell, especially those known to us.
- The family of Christine Gameson as they come to terms with their loss and all those in our Church community grieving for loved ones.
- All the young people receiving exam results and facing the next step in their education and training, either with excitement or apprehension.
- The family of Nora Quoirin, who went missing on holiday, and whose body was found earlier this week.
- The oppressed people in The Yemen and those fighting peacefully for democratic rights in Hong Kong.

The Church Kitchen

The work on the kitchen is now complete apart from a few minor snags which will be sorted out soon. The next step is to wash down all the cupboards, etc., and then gradually replace the crockery, pans and other bits and pieces being stored on the stage, when we've worked out where they'll go! Anne will be looking for volunteers!

There'll be a list stuck to our smart new tiles for any snags or problems to be noted. Please don't include things you don't like, just tell me - the list is for snagging only. Mike Pregnall
