- For those known to us who are ill, undergoing investigations or treatment or weak and frail.
- For the people left homeless and anxious after the floods in Yorkshire and the Midlands
- For all the emergency services, helping those in distress
- For the many selfless individuals working together to help their community
- For the candidates putting themselves forward for the election, that truth, integrity and respect are at the forefront.

30th November - Decorating of the Church Come and help to decorate the trees and window sills for Christmas. 10:00am – 12:30pm. Refreshments available.

1st December - Toy and Gift service There is a change of emphasis this year by the charity supporting the victims of domestic violence to whom we have previously sent the toys. This year, they are asking for Tokens of Love, gift tokens so that families and individuals who have fled with nothing can purchase what is needed. They would still like to receive some toys, so we are suggesting that children bring wrapped and labelled (gender and age range) gifts and adults bring gift tokens. The Worship Team suggest Tesco, Sainsbury, Primark, or Boots tokens. Please bring these on the day as usual to be placed in a basket.

1st December Worship on the Move at Rupert Jarvis Court 4pm. This is a joint Carol Service with Emmanuel and the residents. Your support would be much appreciated as we are asked to do readings. Rev Michael Moon will be giving a short talk. Speak to Muriel if you would like a lift.
